Report

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME
NOT ME BUT YOU

[ 1869 - 1948 ]
Mahatma Gandhi
"Be the change you want to see in the world"

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME
NOT ME BUT YOU

In India, the idea of involving students in the task of National Service dates to the times of Mahatma Gandhi. According to him, the first duty of the students should be not to treat their study period as one opportunity for indulgence in intellectual luxury but to prepare themselves for absolute dedication in the service of needy village people.

In India, NSS was started on 24-09-1969 during the "Gandhi Centenary year. Gandhiji inspired ten Indian youth to understand their social responsibility and to establish a meaningful linkage between the college students (campus) and the community for social upliftment.

It started with an enrolment of 40000 students in 37 universities in 1969. Presently coverage of NSS students has increased to 34,00,000 in 336 universities, colleges, and technical institutions.

NSS aims to give the higher education system an extensive dimension and orient the youth to community services.

The primary objective of NSS: -

Personality Development of volunteers through community services".

Secondary Objectives: -

- 1) To understand the community in which they work.
- 2) To identify the needs and problems of the community and involve them in problem-solving.
- 3) To develop among them a sense of social and civic responsibility.
- 4) To gain skills in mobilising community participation.
- 5) To acquire leadership qualities and democratic attitudes.
- 6) To develop a capacity to meet emergencies and Natural disasters.
- 7) To practice National integration and social harmony.

Mission (Motto):

The motto of NSS, "Not Me but You," reflects the need for selfless service.

NSS also helps the students appreciate other person's points of view and empathise with other living beings.
